

ABSTRACT OF THE INVENTION

A method of adjusting exposure error for multiple products is described. First, one Photo Feed Back System (PFBS) suited to host- product or miscellaneous product
5 is chosen. Different standard points and compensation difference for host-product or miscellaneous product are provided. Then, the PFBS parameter is calculated as an exposure adjustment value. The standard point and compensation difference for miscellaneous product are dependent on host-product.